The DIMMER VIEW

Protection for the Consumer

Most government agencies are self-serving to a great degree — and maybe this one is too. But in the process it could give great and needful help to those who have been put down by insensitive retailers and faceless manufacturers.

It is the State Department of Consumer Affairs, a group which seems to have the consumer as its concern with an objective of seeing that good, ol' consumer gets a fair shake for his hard earned buck.

Some cynical newsman may suspect that an overriding philosophy of the bureau is that if the consumer is saved some of his dough from the grasping fingers of a fast-buck retailer, he will have money left to better support the agency that has been appointed consumer watchdog.

It may be expensive, but Consumer Affairs cleared up one little frustration of the trade. It has directed that a "warranty" and a "guarantee" are the same. Once a "warranty" indicated that it was manufactured to work — whether it did or not. A "guarantee" meant that the retailer or manufacturer might listen to your complaint — if you could find the right guy.

Now, unequivocally, Consumer Affairs says they mean precisely and exactly the same thing. And that means "guarantee."

But there are two kinds. Implied and express. An implied warranty is created by operation of law whenever a product is sold by a merchant — unless it is sold "as is" or "with all its faults" or similar language.

The implied warranty refers to its fitness and its adaptability for a particular use or else the merchant would have labeled it "as is". That also means it is guaranteed to do the job it is sold to do.

Example: Consumer buys a carburetor as a replacement for one on his car. If the carburetor was poorly manufactured and doesn't work properly, the implied warranty of merchantability protects the buyer. If the device was manufactured for a certain make of car and it doesn't work, the implied warranty of fitness for a particular use is breached.

Either way the consumer is entitled to a refund or a replacement. If the consumer is hassled, he should contact his Department of Consumer Affairs.

An express warranty is usually in writing on a product. Let's say consumer is buying a clock. There is a model or shelf sample which is shown to the consumer. When the consumer receives it, it does not conform to the sample. The express warranty has been breached.

In California, under an express warranty, a manufacturer who maintains service or repair facilities within the state must repair the goods within 30 days, and the goods must be returned to the consumer at the manufacturers expense. If service or repair is not provided within the state, goods may be returned to any store which sells the identical item for replacement or repair. It's the law!

Before charging out to fight with the merchants, get some facts.

What was covered by the warranty — the whole product or only certain parts?

What is product guaranteed against? Were there limitations? If a garment isn't supposed to shrink — or to fade — does it say so in plain language?

How long is the guarantee good? Is the time limit the same for all parts? Time guarantee should run from date of sale, not of manufacture.

How is the guarantee met? Who pays for parts and who pays for labor — the store, the manufacturer or you? Sometimes the guarantee for labor is for a shorter term than for parts.

Are there conditions and limitations? Does it cover only the original owner or can it be passed along if it is sold? Does it cover moving or only the original installations? It is restricted to the store of purchase? Be wary of terms like "lifetime."

Don't be misled by a statement that you must file a card or fill out a form to validate your warranty. A dated sales slip is all the proof-of-purchase you need.

There is a bill pending in Congress that would require all warranties (guarantees) to be more simply worded and further define the seller's responsibility.

Anyone who has his toe in the wringer with a dealer's warranty (guarantee) should contact the Department of Consumer Affairs at 1350 Front st. or by calling 236-7384.

Embezzlement Jails Grove Man

Richard Arthur Cross of Lemon Grove, was sentenced Tuesday to 1-10 years in state prison for embezzling about $100,000 from the Mission Valley Ramada Inn over a 15 month period. He gave a North ave. address.

Cross, a former bookkeeper for the firm, pleaded guilty to one count of grand theft while two other counts were dropped in return for his plea of guilt.

Cross was accused of writing checks to himself and his wife while working for the Inn. He is siad to have deposited $40,000 in his bank account during an 8-month period.

Investigators said he purchased land in Palm Springs, several autos and a boat although he earned only $700 a month as Ramada Inn bookkeeper.

Friday Teen Dance Set

Tomorrow night the VFW teen dance kicks off at 7 p.m. at 2082 Imperial in Lemon Grove. Tickets for the dance are free and so are refreshments but tickets must be picked up in advance.

The dances are sponsored by various civic groups and are held monthly on the last or next to last Friday.

The dances are fully chaperoned by members of the VFW Auxiliary.

Tickets are available at the VFW Hall or by contacting Sheila Neumeister at 460-8444.

S.V. Lion's Club Greets Officers

The theme was Hawaiian but their word is "Service." And in true service club style the Spring Valley Lions club seated their new officers at a banquet last Saturday at the Town & Country Hotel.

After a cocktail-hour and dinner the group settled down to the business of installing new officers and inducting new members.

More than 47 members and guests heard the Lions District Governor Robert M. Norton, talk about Lionism.

In a contest following the ceremonies, prizes for 300 pounds of beef, another for 50 pounds.

Grove Man Held In Slaying of La Mesa Woman

Bail was set at $100,000 Tuesday for a Lemon Grove man charged with slaying his former girl friend Sunday outside her La Mesa apartment following a scuffle. The woman, Peggy G. Gabriel, 20, a dental assistant, lived at 6119 Severin dr.

The man, 22-year old Patric Anthony Madrid, of 2193 Bonita st. pleaded innocent in the court of Judge Thomas G. Duffy.

Madrid, a handyman, was taken into custody at the scene of the shooting and booked in county jail.

The police report said Miss Gabriel was returning from a Lemon Grove laundromat with Maureen Tucker, 22, her roommate, when the shooting occurred.

Miss Gabriel was pronounced dead at the scene.

Funeral services for Miss Gabriel were held Wednesday afternoon at the Encanto Methodist church.

Woman's Body Found in Sleeping Bag

The body of a woman found in a sleeping bag Thursday in a gully was identified by the county coroner.

The woman was identified late Tuesday as Marilyn Christie, 18, of Scio, Ore. She had been beaten to death, investigators said. Identification was made through a check of fingerprints, the coroner's office said. She had left home May 13 for Hollywood.

She was found in a sleeping bag in a gully in the Rancho San Diego area just east of Spring Valley. The area is a mile east of Jamacha Junction.

She had apparently been brought to the gully and had been there two days when discovered. The sheriff's department filed the report following a tip from an unidentified source.

Windows Damaged In S.V. Duplexes

It might seem like fun to the rock thrower but the owners of the new duplexes at 1154-1164 Jamacha lane in Spring Valley will have to replace $1,000 worth of windows broken by rock-throwing vandals last week.

The damage was done to five 2-story duplexes at the addresses above. Sheriff's deputies are tracking down clues.

Two Here Victims Of Money Thieves

Buglars entered the home of Edward Beaver, 8364 Alton place last week and made off with $75 in currency.

The money was removed from a wallet Sunday night. Beaver learned of his loss when he went to market Monday morning.

In another wallet-lift, Estelle Fetters of 3445 Vista, in Lemon Grove, missed $160 from her purse which she had left unattended Friday afternoon.

No Trash Service On July Fourth

There will be no residential trash pickup in Lemon Grove or Spring Valley on Thursday, July 4th, the Thomas Trash Disposal said today.

Residences normally pickup on Thursday will be serviced Friday. Friday collections will be made on Saturday for the holiday week end, the firm said.

July 4th Ceremonies at Ball Park

Little League 'Old Timers' to Play; Game Memorializes Its Vietnam Dead

Who ever heard of a Little League "Old Timers Game"?

There'll be one in Lemon Grove July 4th at the Ed Burke Field in Monterey Heights starting at 1 p.m.

Former Lemon Grove Little Leaguers who are now 25-29 years of age will be back, fat stomachs and all, to show the current crop of Little League players how it used to be done.

Jim Massey, a North Island Ordnance worker, who lives at at 3725 Capella Court in La Mesa thought up the idea. He formerly lived in Lemon Grove and his only child, a daughter, Linda, once played Bobby-Sox ball.

He explained his plan to Lemon Grove Little League president Wes Williamson and vice president Jim Minnocci.. They, too, thought the idea was a splendid one. No one had heard of it before but the idea was a natural, they thought.

Mrs. Sharon Freeman, who married a former local Little Leaguer, was put in charge of contacting former players. Nearly every one she asked agreed enthusiastically to take part.

Mrs. Ethel McFarland, mother of four boys, two of them Little Leaguers, was recruited as secretary. The two women have been working up a storm.

So 40-50 former Little Leaguers from all levels of business and professional life will be here to play in the game next Thursday.

Massey said more meaning is being given the event than just a ball game.

"Eight Lemon Grove Little Leaguers who were serving their country, died in Vietnam. We're going to memorialize these fine young men at the 'homecoming'."

Memorial Planned

A monument has already been ordered and it will be installed at the park before the day of the game.

The names of the young men will be released after the families of each has been contacted, Massey said.

In the 4th of July ceremony will be a Color Guard and a Rifle Squad from El Capitan High school. A short memorial service will be conducted by Richard Faulk, an intern at St. John of the Cross Catholic church.

Then the "old-timers" will play, followed by a regulation Little League game.

"I hate to see a game played under these circumstances", Massey said, "but these fine, young men are gone and we can't do anything about that. Bringing back some of their team mates will show that many of us remember... and care."

Some of the former Little Leaguers, many of whom are now parents of youngsters approaching Little League size, have said they would attend and play in the "Old Timers" event.

The List

They include: Ronnie Lee, Randy Barry, Mike McCrae and Andy Glover.

Also: Allan Ursillo, Terry Luitzens, Gary Bostwick and Peter Byrne.

Also: Daniel Colesanto, Mike Hentigan, Fred Knight and Bob Ursillo.

Also: Luther Clark, Rick Hodge, Tom Langpap, Bob Westover and Gary Glover.

Also: Howard Estes, Richard Ott, Robert Jump and Steve Bellwood.

Also: Gary and Curtis Lintvedt, Don Wilson and Pat Selvig.

Also: Paul Daniels, Dan Nachison, Jim Luick and Bob Heine.

Jim Minnocci, the vice president, said Wednesday, "There are those who would honor the men who served our country. I can't think of a better way to do it than with our youngsters on this Patriotic Day.

"There will be a touch of solemnity in the get-together but we must remember that many who have died in the service of our country have enjoyed baseball on Little League fields. On this Day, we honor all of them."

The Organizer

But Jim Massey, a former Marine, won't be playing. He's more of an organizer. Last year he thought up a raffle for the Marine League Toys for Tots program. Before you could bat an eye he had raised $900 — the most the League had raised in this area.

But he has a certain touch with baseball. He convinced his daughter Linda, now 15, that she should play Bobby Sox ball when she was a youngster.

"She played a lot of games that year," he recalled. "I know because I drove her to the ball field nearly every day. Near the end of the season she got a hit . . . her only hit. I though then she ought to be allowed to quit if she wanted to. So she quit with a solid single on her record," Massey said.

GAVEL PASSES — Incoming President of the Spring Valley Chamber of Commerce, Mr. Ed Fleming of La Jolla Federal Savings, S.V., takes over duties from former President Mrs. Ray Dene Shepard. Mrs. Shepard is the Bank of America Loan Officer at Campo-Conrad, S.V. This year the Chamber will complete a detailed map of Spring Valley which will be made available to area businesses and residents. The Chamber of Commerce is composed of Spring Valley residents and currently numbers 21. Meetings are held on the second Monday of each month and "Press Coverage is encouraged," says Mrs. Shepard. Mr. Fleming stated that he is looking forward to an active year of continuing community service.

Appeal Now Available For 'too high' taxes

Property owners who plan to contest the values placed on their properties by the county assessor can file an appeal beginning July 2 in all counties, except Los Angeles, according to State Board of Equalization Member John W. Lynch. For residents of San Diego County the filing period is from July 2 to September 16. Appeals received after the final filing dates cannot be considered.

If the property owner does not receive notice of the assessed value of his property by July 1, or shortly thereafter, he may obtain the information by visiting the assessor's or county auditor's office, where the roll is kept. Usually the assessor's office will supply the figures by phone or mail if the owner can identify his property accurately, preferably by parcel number.

A property owner can contest the assessor's full value estimate if he thinks it is excessive. Except in the case of land in the "open-space" program, "full value" means the best price a willing and knowledgeable seller could obtian for the property from a willing and knowledgeable buyer. To contest the assessor's full value, the property owner should be prepared with information on the market values of comparable properties in the neighborhood.

Lynch advised that an appellant cannot expect relief merely because taxes generally are high or because the current assessed value is considerably higher than last year's. The current assessed value must be excessive relative to what the property was worth on March 1, 1974.

The property owner may first wish to contact the assessor's office and request an explanation of the appraised value of the property. If the explanation does not resolve the issue, the taxpayer then should appeal to the assessment appeals board if the county has created one or more of these boards, or to the board of supervisors sitting as a county board of equalization. The hearing before such a board is informal, and the taxpayer need not have legal counsel.

Forms on which to file appeals may be obtained from the clerk of the county board of supervisors or from the assessor's office.

CoC Nudges Merchants For Input Over Broadway Divider Project

The June 20 meeting of the Lemon Grove Chamber of Commerce progressed toward a final recommendation to the County Engineer about the 1 block center-divider along Broadway, between Imperial and Kempf sts.

President Del Lake and the board heard a proposal by Jim Vannoy of Sta-Rock Division of the R. C. Speaks Construction Co. that the town consider crushed-brick filling for the divider zone. The project would be County funded.

Chamber board members were impressed with the 'maintenance free', porous, crushed-brick displays (at about two-thirds the cost of black-topping) but delayed a decision until Broadway merchants were contacted — requiring a little pavement pounding along the downtown strip.

Dialogue among the COC board members indicated concern by some that although there is now an improved access and thruway in the downtown area, local business suffers from the lack of "U" turn space along the downtown route.

Larry Scott of Winchell's donuts said his business has fallen off substantially since the "U" turn was blocked at Imperial and Broadway sts. He felt that removal of the divider section altogether should be discussed, along with the addition of pavement lines to widen the intersection and significantly reduce congestion.

County Officals will be invited to attend next month's meeting to hear the board's street plan recommendation.

Other business centered on the desirability of a County survey to gather facts on incorporation.

Helen Myers CoC Office Manager presented a County report that was done recently for the Santee area looking into incorporation and annexation. She stressed that the County report is a fact gathering report to test a community's sentiment about incorporation among other things, and the report makes no specific recommendations or proposals.

The board will pursue this matter after further deliberations with community members this coming month.

Also on this month's agenda was a ratification of CoC Officer elections. Bob Guest was elected Vice-President, Gary Sweet, Secretary and Bob Seer was elected to the Board of the Lemon Grove CoC.

College Staff Increase Asked

The governing board of Grossmont College has tabled a request from the college administration for authorization to hire 18 classified employees. The cost of such a proposal would be $150,000.

The College President, Irv Metzgar said that the personnel are needed to fill manpower gaps left over the past two years by budget cuts. The board will review the proposal at a future meeting.

Metzgar said that administrators are bogged down with an unmanageable amount of paper work and are unable to spend adequate time working with staff to build programs and oversee the curricula. Metzgar also said the "faculty should be able to avoid the same paper deluge and devote time to teaching and close student relationships."

The employee request includes: one clerk in personnel, business office, admissions microfilming, counseling, and instruction, an evening division secretary; a vocational technical placement officer; a research secretary; a swing shift off-set operator in duplicating; a PBX switchboard operator; two custodians and a maintenance worker; a photo lab technician; biology micro technician; communications arts technician; criminology and campus police clerk; and a veterans office job development specialist.

Hospital Budget Gives Salary Boost in July

The directors of Grossmont Hospital have set the 1974-75 budget at 11 million. The figure includes an 8% salary hike for all employees, effective next month.

Administrator Robert Dahlgren said $660,000 of the money will come from a 16.8% room rate and hospital service fee boosts. The cost of a semi-private room went up from $64 to $75 daily.

Dahlgren said that in order to keep costs in line the hospital would improve its in-service training program and refrain from adding additional positions in the 1974-75 budget.

The supply budget is concededly, conservative to begin with, and with inflation raging it appears that almost any new equipment may be a luxury. The Hospital will add some equipment however, including an automated chemistry system for laboratory services.

For employees the wage increases and a continued longevity bonus will be included in the new budget.

The budget appears to show that over 6.5 million will go toward salaries while revenue is projected to be $11,045,000.

The budget may be altered in accordance with possible hospital staff recommendations before the final figure is set—by August 1, when the County of San Diego requires that hospitals have their fiscal years budgets on file.

Spring Valley Man Charged for Marijuana Use

Police arrested Richard Goor, 28, a self-employed glass blower of 9210 Valencia, Spring Valley last week on Wednesday, charging him with being under the influence of marijuana.

The sheriff's office reported that a woman flagged deputies after Goor is said to have hit her parked auto with the shopping cart he was propelling and refused to discuss the damage to her car with her.

Deputies stopped Goor at Sweetwater and Orville sts. after he drove his van from the shopping center where the incident occurred.

Deputies said the vehicle smelled strongly of marijuana smoke and that particles of material on his teeth indicated he had eaten a "roach."

He was booked in County Jail.

Arsins Gomez Buys Yarn Shop From Maria

Mrs. Tony Gomes has become the new owner of Maria's Yard Shop at 7947 Broadway, in Lemon Grove.

She bought it from Maria Brehmer who operated it for five years but is retiring now because of ill health.

Mrs. Gomes (Arsins) and her family moved to Lemon Grove five years ago and soon thereafter became a nurse's aide at Heartland Hospital.

Her husband recently retired as a commercial tuna fisherman. The couple have five children, all boys.

"I always wanted to do this because I do a lot of crocheting. And when I heard Maria was ill I had a chance to do what I always wanted to do," she said. The shop will be carried on as it was when Mrs. Brehmer, she said. "I hope to make it as successful as she did."

The shop will be open 9-4 daily except Monday when the hours will be 9-5.

'Honorary' Sheriff Badges

The nearly 500 bearers of Honorary Deputy Sheriff badges have been organized by Sheriff John F. Duffy into what he terms "a citizen action group."

"The State Legislature, the Board of Supervisors, and our 13 City Councils are continually subjected to pressure from a multitude of organized groups seeking to get their point of view adopted and supported by these elected bodies.

"These groups exert their influence on everything from conservation to land developments, from labor to business, from welfare to local parades. Yet about the only people presenting a case for effective law enforcement, salaries, or equipment for law enforcement agencies have been representatives of the department. A broad based group of informed citizens should be helping to take these messages to the legislative bodies and to the community," Sheriff Duffy said.

Duffy noted that sheriffs have traditionally issued honorary gold badges to friends, campaign contributors and others "much in the same manner as a mayor might hand out keys to the city."

When he found he was unopposed in the recent primary, he felt the time was ripe to remold the Honorary Deputy Sheriffs and bring them into the public spotlight without suspicions that he might be using the group to further his re-election efforts.

A small group of the Honorary Deputies drafted by-laws and held the first annual meeting last month. "Sheriff" Joe Higgins of Dodge TV commercial fame and Marty Milner of the "Adam 12" TV series, provided a program. Higgins had been named "Honorary Sheriff of San Diego County" two years earlier by Duffy, and Milner, a Fallbrook resident, is an Honorary Deputy.

"Honorary Deputy Sheriffs have no police power," Duffy emphasized. He also said they cannot be regular nor reserve law enforcement personnel.

"Honorary Deputy Sheriffs are nothing new to San Diego County," the sheriff noted. To emphasize this point, he presented plaques to the two Honorary Deputies with the longest service present at the organizational meeting. Receiving the honors were George C. Wilkin, 73, of 3530 Promontory st., San Diego with 52 years as an Honorary Deputy, and George Lapthorne, 84, of 4740—55th st., San Diego, with 41 years. Wilkins was appointed by Sheriff James C. Byers in 1922 and Lapthorne by Sheriff Ed Cooper in 1933.

'The Beginning of Earth' Is Space Theatre Showing

Leave the earth and travel to the beginnings of the Universe, see a galaxy form, take a trip underwater deep into the primordial oceans and peer into the heart of a volcano in the Reuben H. Fleet Space Theater's production, "Cosmos — the Universe of Loren Eiseley" now showing daily.

The first full-length single feature scheduled, Space Theatre Executive Director, W. Michael Sullivan said "Cosmos" is an enormous undertaking. It places the audience in the midst of the beginnings of time and the violent formation of the planet Earth.

The new production is based on the writings of the well-known science writer, Loren Eiseley, and explores mankind's place in the universe midpoint between the atom and the stars.

Sullivan said that "Cosmos" looks beyond human sight into the outer reaches of the universe and delves into the unseen world of living cells down to the atom through electron microscopy and animation.

Wrap Around Screen

The production uses the prototype Space Transit Simulator —starball projector plus 70 mm motion picture, three times the size of Cinerama, that gives a picture that wraps around the audience . . . above below, on all sides. It brings to life the instant when some unknown force exploded to scatter the seeds of the universe.

Five billion years are compressed into a 30-second sequence, surrounding spectators with a glittering, multi-level animation of the birth of a galaxy.

The violet formation of the earth's crust is covered, Sullivan said, by enveloping viewers with scenes filmed during last year's volcanic eruption in Iceland.

"Cosmos" audiences swim through pre-historic oceans, touring ancient kelp forest as shot in the largest film format developed, projected on 80 per cent of the 76-foot diameter space theater dome.

Governed by the non-profit San Diego Hall of Science, the Reuben H. Fleet Space Theater is operated in conjunction with an adjoining science center, a do-it-yourself laboratory of science games, puzzles and demonstrations.

The entertainment-educational complex is located in Balboa Park south of the San Diego Zoo. Ample free parking is available.

Changing Times

In the old days, inflation meant blowing up a toy balloon.

FIRE SAFETY HONORS— Spring Valley was adjudged the best unincorporated community and La Mesa the best city in the county-wide 7th Annual Fire Safety Anti-Litter Contest.
Spring Valley won its award for the massive May cleanup sponsored by the Spring Valley Chamber of Commerce. Under the leadership of Lee Green, cleanup drive chairman, 57 tons of trash were collected for disposal. Over 150 citizens from numerous organizations contributed directly to the campaign, sponsored by the San Diego Chamber of Commerce.

Building Strike Helps Bar Biz

A noticeable increase in bar business in some east county areas was credited to the building trades strike.

Two bar operators said strikes produced core patronage from laid-off workers "until their money runs low."

The strike of building tradesmen idled about 25,000 workmen Monday.

Saloon-clientele strikers said a long strike is expected. While carpenters, laborers and cement masons contracts are being negotiated, contracts of other crafts will expire—from now until August. It was evident to these workers, at least, that other strikes would be called and the the walk-out would be respected by other crafts—perhaps until fall.

Some crafts are demanding increases that were denied by wage controls in 1972.

District Teachers Ask For Pay Hike

The chairman of the salary committee of the La Mesa-Spring Valley school district has received a request from the district teachers for an 11% pay hike effective next January. The committee has not indicated whether the request will be granted.

The teachers wanted to inform the board of their request immediately to enable the board to reach a budget figure for the coming year.

Teacher salary raises are negotiated on a calendar year basis according to David Sanchez of the La Mesa-Spring Valley Teachers Association.

Interfaith Rites

Mr. and Mrs. Armand E. Sutton of Spring Valley, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Jonnie Elizabeth to William Curtis Moebus of El Cajon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Moebus, also of El Cajon.

The 2 p.m. ceremony will take place on July 27 at Santa Sophia Catholic Church, Spring Valley. Father John Beatty and Dr. Hans-Ludwig Wagner, Th.D. will conduct the services.

A reception follows the interfaith ceremony at Los Novios on Palm ave. in La Mesa.

Miss Sutton is a Monte Vista High graduate and attends Grossmont College. The groom-to-be is a graduate and employee of the college.

Lutheran Center Planned

A Center for Lutheran Education to serve the greater San Diego area is under consideration by the Lutheran High School Association of San Diego County.

Dr. Erich E. Helge, Professor of Education at Concordia College, Seward, Nebraska, has been engaged as a consultant to assist with a feasibility study which is currently under way. The study will be complete by next January and is primarily directed to the Lutheran congregations in the county and hopefully will support the needs which have been identified.

A September, 1975 target date has been set for the opening of the Center, which will include a high school, as well as provide educational services to congregations and individuals of all ages. A 40-acre site on Pomerado road in the Miramar Ranch area of San Diego has been acquired for the Center.

FDA Food Fact-Sheet Available

The memory of many a happy, sociable meal has been dimmed by the upset and distress of food poisoning.

A new fact sheet, developed by the U. S. Department of Agriculture and the Food and Drug Administration, tells how to protect yourself and your family from this illness.

There are four, simple one-celled bacteria that are responsible for most cases of food poisoning. These bacteria—Salmonella, Clostridium perfringens, Staphylococcus, and Clostridium botulinum are everywhere in the environment, including in all the foods we eat. But fortunately, with care, these bacteria can be kept from multiplying and causing illness.

Here is some USDA-FDA advice to help you make sure the food you serve is wholesome:

Don't buy any food in broken, bent, bulged, leaky, or outdated cans or packages.

Buy chilled and frozen meat, poultry and other foods last so they won't warm up in the cart while you shop.

Refrigerate or freeze meat, poultry, and frozen foods as soon as possible after purchasing.

Thaw frozen foods in the refrigerator, or if you must thaw foods fast, in a watertight plastic bag submerged in cold water. Never thaw these foods uncovered at room temperature.

Wash knives, cutting boards, and your hands in hot soapy water after cutting up raw poultry or meat.

Younger Address To Law Graduates

State Attorney General Evelle J. Younger will be the honored speaker at graduation exercises for Western State University on June 29 at 2:30 p.m. at Montezuma Hall (San Diego State University) in Aztec Hall. He will speak on "The Changing Role of the Public Lawyer."

At 1:30 p.m., he will host a news conference in the Presidential Suite (Aztec Center).

Handicapped Involvement Goal of State Conference

"Build a Better Tomorrow" is the theme of what may be the largest conference ever held in California on rehabilitating disabled people. The conference is planned for October 8-10, at the new Sacramento Convention Center, it was announced by State Director of Rehabilitation Alan C. Nelson. About 1,000 persons are expected to attend.

The conference will be sponsored by the State Department of Rehabilitation.

Nelson said, "The purpose of the conference is to provide an opportunity for physically and mentally disabled persons, their advocates, and providers of rehabilitation services throughout the State to study updated needs for comprehensive services for the disabled. The goal of the conference is to assure full involvement of the disabled in all aspects of society."

The conference, will provide the basis for a report on the needs of the disabled and recommendations for meeting those needs. The report will be made to the governor, the legislature, the Department of Rehabilitation, the U. S. Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, and to other interested parties.

Sweet Adelines Receive 'Education in Harmony'

Miss Suzie Hotchkiss, a member of the San Diego Chapter of Sweet Adelines and a physical education teacher at the Spring Valley Jr. High School, recently took 7th and 8th grade Spring Valley Junior High School girls chorus to the regular meeting of the SDSA's for an educational visit in harmony.

The eight girls, representing the 57-member girls chorus, were dressed in their chorus costumes and were accompanied by their director, Miss Ruth Cafky. Miss Cafky also teaches the school's boys chorus.

The girls enjoyed an evening of first hand tips in proper vocalizing and an experience to see the 1974 Regional Championship Chorus in action. In the photograph with the girls are members of San Diego Chorus: Miss Suzie Hotchkiss, Mrs. Verna Richards (whose son is an 8th grader at the school) and Mrs. Dorothy Norton (whose daughter will be attending the school in the fall).

The San Diego Chorus won first place over 29 other choruses at a recent Chorus Competition. It will represent Region 11 (So. California, Nevada and Arizona) at the International Chorus Competition to be held in Seattle, Washington, in October, 1975. Sweet Adelines is a non-profit international organization of women — with a membership of 25,000 — who enjoy singing, doing harmony as a hobby.

The public may hear the chorus perform at the Grossmont Shopping Center, in front of the Broadway, from 1:30 to 4 p.m. on Sunday afternoons: June 30 and July 14. Performances are free. For information call 278-3898.

News Women Awds At Kona Kai

Women in Communications, Inc. honored two women for their outstanding service at the organization's annual awards program recently at the Kona Kai Club in San Diego.

Edith Cushing, former women's editor of the Evening Tribune, was named recipient of the WICI "Galley Slave.' The award, a metal galley tray holding a set Linotype, represents her service to the citizens of San Diego. Miss Cushing, 5685 Ashland dr., San Diego, retired in 1971 after 32 years with the Union-Tribune Publishing Co.

Linda Winkler, one of the founders of the San Diego WICI chapter, was presented a silver tray in recognition of her contributions to WICI locally and nationally. Mrs. Winkler, 3955 Atascadero dr., San Diego chapter and currently serves as first vice president of the national professional organization for women in communications.

Dillon Speaker At SMW Meeting

The monthly meeting of the Society of Military Widows will be held at 10 a.m. on Saturday, July 6, in the Commissioned Officers' Mess, U. S. Naval Station, 32nd st., between Main and Harbor dr., San Diego.

Guest speaker will be Officer "Matt" Dillon of the San Diego Police Department who will talk on the subject of "Consumer Fraud".

UNION — Miss Carolyn Rae Boltz, of Lemon Grove, and daughter of Mrs. Lydia M. Boltz will marry Dave. A. Fantz, of Balboa Island, Calif. The wedding will take place on August 17, 1974 at St. Mary of the Assumption Church, Whittier, Calif. Father Flannigan will conduct the services. The bride-to-be is a graduate of the University of North Dakota. Dave is a graduate of Cal State Fullerton and is employed as a CPA in Los Angeles. After a honeymoon in Hawaii the couple will reside in Balboa Island.

SKYLINE SERVICES — The former Miss Gretchen Sue Johnson, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. A. R. Herbert Johnson of Lemon Grove, was married to Mr. Ernest Paul Tweet of Sioux Falls, South Dakota on June 15. The wedding took place at the Lemon Grove Lutheran Church on Skyline Dr. and the ceremony was conducted by the Reverend Johnson. Gretchen is a graduate of Mt. Miguel High and has a degree from Augustana Lutheran College, in Sioux Falls. She graduated in 1973.
The bridegroom is currently a senior at the college, majoring in accounting. Gretchen is teaching elementary school in Sioux Falls, where the couple will reside.

United Way Names Three to Lead Here

Three residents of the Lemon Grove-Spring Valley area have volunteered to serve on panels that will be reviewing programs of agencies funded by the United Way of San Diego County.

They are: Barbara Ann Honore of 1673 Larwood rd., Lemon Grove who will review agency programs centered in the Heartland Area. She is an economic development coordinator for the Association of Black Women.

In Spring Valley, residents who are reviewing agency programs in the local area include: Dr. Martin A. Williams of 8908 Innsdale ave, a chiropractor and Shirley Day Williams of 4201 Avenida Gregory.

Starting this month, these private citizens will be looking at program goals established last year by United Way member agencies to determine if they have been achieved.

In addition, panels will be reviewing agencies to judge if they qualify for United Way membership in respect to newly adopted membership policy. Management capabilities of the agencies will also be reviewed.

During the period from June to October, panels will be visiting and meeting every other week with agencies to cover the three areas outlined above. Early in 1975 the panels will reconvene for a more in-depth review of programs being funded by United Way according to the priority-of-need of the programs.

Dear Editor:

Just a note and a thank you for your editorial June 13 on "IRS Looks at Religion".

I agree with you wholeheartedly and take this opportunity to thank you for your courage to speak out against the IRS which I too believe is exceeding it's authority.

HOME-COOKED

This Week's RECIPE

The wife of San Diego County Sheriff Deputy Chuck Wood turned in a recipe that pleases her husband — and should please anyone who likes cookies. They're easy to mix and quick to cook.

PUMPKIN COOKIES

by Judy Wood

1 cup white sugar
1 cup shortening
1 egg
1 cup canned pumpkin
2 cups flour
1 teasp. baking powder
1 teasp. baking soda
1 teasp. pumpkin pie spice
½ teasp. salt
1 cup nuts, cut up
1 cup dates, cut up
1 teasp. vanilla

Cream sugar and shortening; add egg and pumpkin. Mix in next 5 ingredients, add nuts, dates and vanilla. Drop from spoon onto cookie sheets. Bake for 12 to 15 minutes at 350. Makes about 5 dozen cokies.

S.V. PTA Officer Installation

The Spring Valley Elementary School PTA officer installation for 1974-1975 was conducted by Mrs. Effie Breidenstein, Past President, at a recent dinner meeting.

Installed were Mrs. Audi Jacobi, President; Mrs. Naomi Vierow, Vice President; Mrs. Virginia Mulherin, 2nd Vice President; Mrs. Ileen Menzies, Secretary; Joe Adams, Treasurer; Mrs. Midge Sceppe, Auditor and Mrs. Leslie Hertsch, Historian.

Although "school is out", the Red Cross Backyard Swim Program sponsored by the PTA continues through the summer.

Century Mark Passed For Grove Resident

Mrs. Florence Atley celebrated her 103rd birthday last week. She has been a resident of Lemon Grove Convalescent Center for the past five years.

She was born June 18, 1871, in Silver City, Nevada and moved to San Francisco in 1891. She was employed by the Navy base at Vallejo as a bookkeeper for the next 20 years.

She has one daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Wagner and a granddaughter Mrs. Beth Wakefield.

A party was held for her in the Blue Room of the facility where cards of congratulations were received from Governor Reagan, friends and staff.

In addition, a bouquet was presented to Mrs. Atley from the Casa Blanca staff.

3,375 Earn Degrees at UCSB

The University of California at Santa Barbara honored more than 3,375 students in Commencement exercises on June 16. The Class of '74 represents more than 50 fields of study and saw 177 of its number receive Doctoral Degrees.

Both UCSB Chancellor Vernon I. Cheade and the co-president of the Associated Students, Robert J. Norris, Jr. delivered addresses.

Local students awarded Bachelor's Degrees were: Roxane Gale Cole, Robert Dale Fuller, and Maureen O'Brien. A Doctorate in Philosophy in Sociology was awarded to June Anne Antell.

In addition eight retiring faculty received emeritus status during the ceremony.

More Names Needed

It is now predicted that between 50 million and 60 million new homes will be needed by the year 2,000.

Wilson Says MIA Widows Now Aided

An estimated 230 widows of military men missing-in-action in Vietnam will now be entitled to survivor benefits under a new ruling by the General Accounting Office which came about at the request of Rep. Bob Wilson, R-San Diego.

"It's taken nearly a year to get this favorable decision," Wilson said, "we thought it would require legislation, but that won't be necessary now in light of GAO ruling which is equivalent to a court decision."

Under the ruling, entitlement to a survivor benefits annuity will be based on the date of death as determined by the secretary of a particular branch of service regardless of when the actual death might have occurred. All MIA time is counted as active duty service for annuity purposes.

"A 15-year military veteran listed as MIA in 1967 would have over 20-years of service and be eligible for retirement when an actual determination of death is made in 1973 or 1974. His widow could then receive a survivor benefits annuity," Wilson explained.

Wilson, who has authored more successful legislation than any other congressman to help POW-MIA families, said up until now benefits have been held-up for widows who qualified, "but the way is now clear and military departments are taking immediate action."

Chinese women who do heavy manual labor can retire at age 50.

We put the "nice" back into business.

Looking for the best savings and loan association in town?
No doubt you're having trouble deciding which is the best.
Don't worry. You're not alone.
The problem exists because they're all so much alike. About the same interest rates. The same plans. The same free services.
So, you look for the savings and loan association that you'd most enjoy doing business with.
The savings and loan that's revived the old basic value of friendly personal service.

The savings and loan that pleases its customers. And continues to grow.
La Jolla Federal Savings and Loan. The savings and loan that's opened three new offices since 1971 and will soon be in Cardiff-by-the-Sea.

'Smallest Man' at Ringling Circus

The smallest man in the world will be appearing in the 104th edition of the Ringling Bros.--Barnum & Bailey Circus at the Sports Arena July 9-14.

Mihaly Meszaros, known on two continents as "Michu", weighs 25 pounds and stands 33 inches tall — seven inches shorter than the legendary Gen. Tom Thumb. To Michu, a Volkswagen was the Queen Mary, so he had a car built especially for his tiny requirements.

Michu, a multi-talented 34 year old Hungarian, received his training as a singer-dancer-acrobat during his 15 years with the Liebel family circus in Europe.

RB-B&B got word of Michu's talents through its intercontinental network of talent scouts and considers him "Circus find of the Century".

'People Lobby' Will Shadow Government

"Government Can be held accountable," says Don Waters President of Citizens for the Public Interest (CPI).

CPI is a non-partisan, non-profit, citizens' action coalition, and San Diego's newest "people lobby."

Waters says, "CPI will back no candidates, nor will it get involved in their campaigns. Rather its leaders see it as a positive organization seeking real solutions to complex local problems."

This year, the already active Board of Directors and trustees of CPI, are aiming at three key priorities.

The first includes transportation and the attendant problems of planning and controlling any regional transportation district.

The second involves government reorganization proposals and the problem of public awareness. Popular input into the all-encompassing Comprehensive Planning Organization (CPO) will be a focus. Third, policies which relate to growth and San Diego County's employment base will be followed carefully.

Day-to-day direction for CPI is given by its Board of Directors. Among the current Directors are: Dene Armstrong, Charles Patton, Ralph Rendon, Don Worley, Wm. Logan, Craig Peters, Harold Tebbets, Robert Faucett, and Bill Herrick. Water's indicated that the coalition has already won broad based support from all segments of business, labor and the local citizenry.

Funding for CPI is through membership dues. It is anticipated that these funds will pay for costs incurred by CPI in its ongoing research efforts.

CPI hopes that volunteers will monitor government meetings, help write, THE WORD, CPI's monthly publication, and lobby to promote the public interest before elected officials and appointed bureaucracies.

Both $50 regular and $12 associate members will receive a subscription to THE WORD, c/o P.O. Box 4271 San Diego, 92104.

Film Vignettes Offer MultiMedia Experience

Isn't it Good to Know, a new film that abandons traditional story lines to involve the viewer in the life-experiences of real people, will be shown on Sunday, June 30, at the Lemon Grove Christian Church, 6970 San Miguel ave. The film will be shown once beginning at 7:30.

The film was edited and directed by J. Michael Hooser, a young 26 year-old film maker who brings new techniques to his first major film. Using a varying number of images on the same screen, Hooser creates a multi-media effect that draws the viewer into the picture. Included are scenes from the Dino De Laurentiis Production of "Barabbas" through the courtesy of Columbia Pictures.

By shifting the viewer's attention from the true stories of the people who lived then, to brief appearances by Billy Graham, to video - vignettes coupled with original new songs — Isn't It Good to Know" and "Gone Away" by Tedd Smith and "The Soap-Box Song" by Judy McKenzie —Hooser created a film conveying ultimate drama — the drama of change. Purpose comes out of emptiness. Silence becomes communication. And from the disillusionment of drugs, violent protest and witchcraft, there comes a new beginning—new life.

The film is currently being shown in thousands of locations across the country each month. Lemon Grove Christian Church, who has made the arrangements for this special free showing of Isn't It Good to Know, invites all families in the area to attend.

HANDSHAKE DOES IT — With hands clasped Thomas C. Peek (left), chairman of CHAD (Combined Health Agencies Drive) and Philip M. Klauber, president of United Way, agree to hold a joint fund-raising drive this fall. The unprecedented plan will see a three-month campaign starting in September that will target solely on the business and professional communities.

Writers Market Just Matter of 'Know-How' - La Jolla Conference

Writing and selling fiction and non-fiction in today's literary markets will be discussed by experts at the first annual La Jolla Writers' Conference, scheduled for August 7-11 on the campus of the University of California, San Diego.

UCSD Extension is sponsor of the event.

Registration is open to successful writers, people aspiring to writing, and teachers of writing. They will have the opportunity to meet with prominent writers and editors from around the country in lectures and small seminars.

Each person registering for the conference may opt for a manuscript critique by one of the following writers-and-editors - in - residence: Hayes B. Jacobs, author of the book Writing and Selling Non-Fiction, who edits the monthly New York Market column for Writer's Digest, Anne Mollegen Smith, recently appointed fiction editor of Redbook; fiction writer Merrill Joan Gerber, whose stories appear in Redbook, McCall's, Ladies' Home Journal, Family Circle, and Woman's Day; Joseph Bell, a free-lance writer since 1955, author of five books and a contributor to Harper's and other magazines; Frances McCullough, editor for Harper and Row of such books as Sylvia Plath's The Bell Jar and Crossing the Water, N. Scott Monday's House Made of Dawn, and Robert Bly's The Light Around the Body; and Lois Duncan, a widely published author of adult fiction and juvenile fiction, well known lecturer nad teacher of writing, and winner of the Dorothy Canfield Fisher Award and the National Press Women's Book Award.

Among topics to be covered at the gathering are: short fiction, the magazine article, the novel, manuscript markets and marketing, writing for young people, book publishing, and writing for trade journals.

The Mediterranean - like climate of La Jolla will lend itself to the informal, indoor-outdoor atmosphere. Social hours and a beach party will be included.

According to conference coordinator David Hellyer, who is a writer and editor himself, the four-day meeting will refute Kurt Vonnegut's recent assertion (Time, June 3, 1974) that writers cannot confer. Quoting Vonnegut, "It's all they can do to drag themselves past one another like great, wounded bears."

To the contrary, says Hellyer, "Many writers profit immensely from the shoptalk that conferences provide. Writing is really a very lonely craft. Also, West Coast writers suffer from a 'long-distance syndrome' because most of the markets for publishable material are located on the East Coast. At the La Jolla conference, participants will be able to sit down with professionals intimately involved in the New York scene, where the action is."

A brochure giving full information on the conference is available. To request one, telephone (714) 453-200, ext. 2061; or write: La Jolla Writers' Conference, UCSD Extension, P.O. Box 109, La Jolla, CA 92037.

Hellyer suggests sending for the brochure as soon as possible because manuscripts for critique should be submitted by July 15.

NEW MANAGER — Mike E. Wiggins has been named manager of the Lemon Grove Office for San Diego Trust & Savings Bank. Wiggins joined the bank in 1967 and has served as assistant manager for the El Cajon Valley, Grantville, and University City offices. He is a past president and treasurer of the Jaycees and has participated as vice president of the East San Diego County Fair for two years.

Fast Three-Year-Olds At Caliente Race Track; Wellington Wins 4 More

TIJUANA — Saturday's feature race at Agua Caliente, the Speed Handicap, will bring out the track's fastest thoroughbreds going for a $2500 purse over the five-furlong course. Conditions of the race will attract 3-year-olds and upward.

Sunday's feature race, The LaGloria, will feature 4-year-olds and upward over the one mile course with a $3000 purse.

Although he chose to ride on Sunday only, jockey H. K. Wellington added four more wins to his cause and now has a total of 32 victories to lead Curt Levine, Jose Mendez and Wilfrido Osuna who each have won 17 races.

Talented Juan Garcia continues to pace the training division at Caliente with 18 wins, two more than runnerup G. M. "Bob" Sinne, who was able to close the gap over the weekend with three wins to Garcia's lone trip to the winner's circle.

SD. County Has Booth At Del Mar Exposition

For the first time, after an absence of several years, the San Diego County Government has a modest booth on display at the Del Mar Southern California Exposition.

The Expo, better known as the San Diego County Fair, runs thru July 4.

Overall theme of the County's booth is "Vacation in San Diego County — Save Time, Money, Energy". The booth is open daily from noon to 8 p.m.

Highlight of the County's booth is a daily drawing to give away a free pet from the County Animal Shelter. Prospective pet owners can sign up for the drawing at the booth daily, where they will also be able to see the "pet of the day".

An interesting and informative slide and sound show is also featured. The slide show provides information concerning the County's parks, beaches and libraries. In addition, two innovative pilot projects being conducted by the County are featured. The programs involve gasoline vapor recovery and a resource recovery plant which will ultimately recycle tons of waste material into usable products in the not-too-distant future.

A San Diego County librarian "story lady" visits the booth July 1, 1-6 p.m. to tell stories to children every hour.

San Diego County lifeguards will be present from 3:30-5 p.m. June 28 and July 1 to 3, to tal about County beaches with visitors.

The San Diego County Fair Booth is located at the south entrance to the Grandstand.

Buster Keaton Film

The Spring Valley Library will present a program of Buster Keaton on Thursday, July 11, at 3:30 p.m.

The films "The General" and "Coney Island" will be shown.

There is no admission charge.

Expo Continues With Festivities

The 85th Southern California Exposition is continuing with an array of artists, shows, and special events during the 14 day festivities at the Del Mar Fair grounds.

The world's largest horse show headlined the Fair's opening and will continue until July 4. Nearly 2,300 horses have been entered, and will perform in the Fair grounds arena. The arena offers 3,000 free seats to Expo visitors.

In addition grandstand shows include, the Pat Boone family, Johnny Rodriguez, the King family, Susan Ray and Glenn Ash among others.

Vaudeville acts are featured along with instrumental and vocal musical groups, karate and kung fu demonstrations, puppet shows, Polynesian dancing, horticultural displays while the Fair's host, Tom Fernandez as "Don Diego" and Carmen Patricia Perry, Miss Fairest of the Fair will tour the grounds daily and open the 8 p.m. grandstand shows.

Mexican food concessions, Public Service Exhibits and many other attractions highlight the Del Mar festivities.

Chinese women wear little, if any, make-up.

'Fiddler' Opens Starlight Season

"Fiddler on the Roof" will be the season's first Starlight show in Balboa Park Bowl beginning July 11 at 8:30.

"Fiddler", a musical features such popular numbers as "Matchmaker, Matchmaker", "If I Were a Rich Man", "Sunrise, Sunset", "To Life" and others.

It stars Davis Brees as Tevye; Martha Gene as Golde; Debbie Glivar as Tzeitel and Gail Wolford as Hodel.

Yente, the matchmaker is Jody Gillis.

Sets for the show have been acquired from the San Bernardino Civic Light Opera. The show is directed by Ole Kittleson.

Other Starlight productions this year are "Student Prince" and "Camelot".

Prices are $5.50, $4.50 and $3.50. Leftover seats are $2 on the night of the show.

Ticket sales are described by executive producer J. Howard Stein as "very brisk — exceeding our expectations."

Grant Clinic Offered Here

A team of California Arts Commission staff members and a Certified Public Accountant will travel through California during the first two weeks of July to hold Grants Clinics to assist local groups in obtaining support for the arts. There is no charge for admission and all arts organizations, schools, service organizations and groups wishing to enhance their community through the arts are encouraged to attend.

Sources of funding avialable for the arts will be explored and recommendations made on how an arts organization can put together an effective Prospectus to gain support and recognition.

In addition, the kinds of grants available from the Commission and a complete analysis of grant forms and budget pages of the application will be discussed by the CAC staff and a Certified Public Accountant.

A clinic is offered from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. in the San Diego Puppet Theater, Balboa Park, on Monday, July 8.

NYC Star Guard Signed by Aztecs

First team All-New York City guard Bob Green has signed a National Letter of Intent to play basketball at San Diego State U, Aztec head coach Dick Davis announced today.

Green, 6-2, 180, attended Bryant High School in Queens where he led his team to the Queens Championship and to the semi-finals of the New Yorfk City Playoffs. Green averaged 22 points a game at Bryant.

"We're very pleased to pick up a player of Green's caliber," Davis said. "There's no question that he's a great player, now all we have to do is fit him into our system. He will be a wing guard and it should be an excellent battle between Bob and Gary Earle.

Green is one of the top five players to come out of New York City this year and this is what the New York Post had to say about him, "A three-year starter for Bryant, he was the leader of the semi-final Owl team. At 6-2, he played inside and out and was at his best in the last quarter. His numbers were 22 points a game, 966 for his three years and he's the first Owl in Lou Hacker's 14 years as coach to make first-team All-City. He can shoot the jumper from 20 feet, his ball handling is good enough to make you think he can be a college guard and he used his excellent quickness to lead the Owls in steals."

Green is the second first team All-City player from New York to join the Aztecs. Earlier 6-8, 195 center Will Connelly signed with San Diego State. Connelly, who played his high school ball at Lafayette High School in Brooklyn, comes to Montezuma's Mesa from Scottsdale (Arizona) Junior College. He'll come in as a sophomore.

Other players signed by the Aztecs include 6-6, 220 forward Bob Kovach, 5-11 point guard Raul Contreras, 6-6½ forward Jeff Welshans and 6-10 center Bob Ross.

Kovach was a first team All-State selection at Chaffey College and is rated a savage rebounder, good shooter and good defensively. Contreras was an All-CIF first team pick from Huntington Beach High School where he averaged 23.5 points per game. Welshans was also first team All-CIF and averaged 20.4 points per game. Ross averaged 6 points and 8 rebounds a game at Foothill College.

The new players will join returnees Steve Copp (6-7), who averaged 13.1 points and 6.3 rebounds last year, Allen Bunting (6-8) who averaged 9.8 points and 6.7 rebounds, Earle, (6-3) who averaged 7.5, Mark Delsman (6-1½), who averaged 5.2 and Willie Stanley (6-7), who averaged 4.8 points and 4.7 rebounds. Copp, Bunting and Earle will all be juniors, Delsman a sophomore and Stanley a senior.

Davis will also have the services of 6-7 redshirt Vince Carson, who played on two NCAA Championship teams while at UCLA.

$1,000 Added To Hang 10 Motocross

With a handsome $1,000 bonus from L&M cigarettes as added incentive to the $30,000 total purse, Brad Lackey and the rest of America's onrushing young motocross stars will be at their competitive bests against the visiting European stars July 14, at Carlsbad.

That is the date of the Hang Ten United States Motocross Grand Prix, lone stateside round in this year's 50cc motocross world championship. Lackey, 23, of Pinole, Calif., looms as the fastest U.S. entrant and a pre-race favorite. The sudden emergence of Lackey as a bonafide star on the international European tour has done much to restore America's floundering motocross prestige.

A veteran of motocross despite his youth, Lackey will arrive at Carlsbad with several outstanding showings in Europe behind him. Three weeks ago in Italy, running against the fastest motocrossers in the world, he finished a strong third, the highest place ever by an American in the 500cc World Championship series.

Motocross, the most physically demanding of all motorcycle sports, was born in Europe. The name comes from the French: "moto" meaning motorcycle, and "cross" meaning cross-country.

Drag Bike Racing New at Orange Track

Something new, drag bike racing, has been added to the eighth annual United States Professional Dragster Championships at Orange County International Raceway. The July 26-27 PDA Championships will feature top fuel and top gas motorcycle racing as well as the super-swift top fuel, funny car and combo eliminators that fans have enjoyed for the past seven years.

"Drag racing fans should get a kick out of the increasingly popular drag bikes," said Doug Kruse, president of the PDA and sponsor of the $54,000-added event. "We will have a dozen of the top drivers trying for four spots in each category. The top fuelers go over 160 miles per hour and that's pretty fast on two wheels."

Sonny Raslawski, Joe Smith, Jerry Cox and Marion Owens are just a few of the top riders expected to be on hand.

Meanwhile Kruse said he expects James Warren to defend his PDA title in the top fueler "Rain for Rent". Warren captured last year's purse with a 6.41 et and a 227.85 mph clocking to edge Don "Big Daddy" Garlits.

Tom "Mongoose" McEwen, who turned in the quickest time last year at 6.19, will be back along with such top fuel luminaries as Tony Nancy, Dwight Salsbury, Don Enriquez and Walt Rhoades.

Sush Matsubara, Jim Dunn, Joe Lee, Paul Radici and Jake Johnston head a star-studded field in the funny car class, while Dave Hough, Jim Scott, Tom Larkin and Chris Christensen are featured in the combo eliminator class, a field that has been doubled to 32 entries.

Junior World Golf Field Filling Up

Patricio Buffo, of Buenos Aires, Argentina, became the 19th foreign player, and represents the 13th country, to enter the seventh annual Junior World Golf championships due to tee up July 31 over five San Diego courses.

Patricio will be joined by a pair of as yet unnamed juniors from Peru, where that country's national junior tournament is still underway. The boy and girl champion in the making have had berths reserved for Junior World Torrey Pines competition.

Misses Louise Tremblay, of Montreal, and Stacey Louise West, of Willowdale, Ontario, will carry Maple Leaf hopes into Torrey Pines. Distaff entries received thus far by Junior World officials indicate the largest field ever for female foreign players.

R. Blake Marshall and Michael McDonald will vie for honors from Bermuda and the West Indies ,respectively, in the 15-17 age group, while Elizabeth Aris of Kingston, Jamaica, and Norman Dustan, of Warwick, Bermuda, will tee up in the 13-14 age bracket at Balboa Park.

Sebastian Muzquiz, of Tijuana, will play in the 11-12 age group, joining previously announced Donald McBride of Bogota. Columbia, and Philip Jonas of Transvaal, South Africa in the Mission Bay golf course competition.

Moving into the Western Pacific, Daniel Gabriel Montecillo, of the Philippines, Keat Leugn and Hung-Juei Chang of the Republic of China, and Gary John Tozer of Australia will compete in the 15-17 players group.

Post entries will be accepted prior to tee off in the qualifying tourney next Monday at Stardust Country Club.

High Scoring, Good Pitching Marks Valley Bobby Sox Play

By Paul Stark

And now a minor league pitcher of the Spring Valley Bobby Soxers has passed the 100 strike-out mark. That would be Allie Humphries of Sportland. Her older sisters passed that mark early this month.

She pitched a 10-5 win over S.V. Woman's club.

In other games, Little Eden 4—S.D. Linen 3. Janet Ruddy, winning pitcher.

S. V. Shopping Center 18, Thomas Disposal 12. Dana Buth and Sandra Leighton, pitchers.

N.I. Fire Dept. 9—Ranchero Paint 5, with Brenda Jennings getting 3 for 4.

Jeanne's Dance 27, Willenburg Realty 7. Laura Adams and Cindy Landrum pitching. Landrum drove in six runs.

Lomita Bowl 5, Delp Plaster 5. Chris Chapman broke up the tie game with a single.

Tire World 11, Speedy Mart 5. Kathy Martin and Suzanne Trim pitchers.

Tom's Meat 22, Medical Printing 9. Cherie Rutan winning pitcher.

Delp 5, Eden 3. Michele and Beth Kelly pitchers.

Tire World 5, NI Fire 1. Dorene Stallard winning pitcher.

Speedy 9, S.D. Linen 1. Jenny Stallard winning pitcher and raising her strikeout total to 133.

Lomita Bowl 11, Ranchero 10.

Thomas 10, Women's 3.

Shop Center 13, Medical 12.

Sportland 21, Willenburg 6. Cecelia Alvarez, winning pitcher.

Pony League Team Gets Seattle Bid

Pony League champions, the Harbor Athletes, will fly to Seattle for a Saturday-Sunday set of games with the two top local baseball teams.

They'll make the trip providing they raise $1,700 by tonight, according to Steve Randel, spokesman for the group.

The Athletics have nailed down first place in the Harbor League and have a 9-2 record on the road, with some of the games against all-star and senior league teams.

The Athletics were invited to make the trip by the Boys Baseball Western Division directors, G. A. Jones.

At press time the money had not been raised.

Soccer Star is Guest At Aztec Fund-raiser

Scottish international soccer goalie Bobby Clark of Aberdeen, will be guest of honor at a benefit dance for the Aztec All-Stars soccer team Saturday in the Recital Hall, Balboa Park.

The John Mullen Trio will provide music for dancing from 8 p.m. to midnight. Admission is a $3 donation per person, with proceeds going to the All-Stars travel fund for a trip to Scotland July 26-August 11.

George Logan, coach of the All-Stars and varsity soccer coach at San Diego State, said Clark will be in town for the second week of the California Soccer Camp, starting Sunday, June 30 at the University of San Diego campus.

Clark presently is in Portland as an instructor at a soccer camp there after returning from a tour of Australia and the South Pacific with other members of the Aberdeen team.

Tickets are available from members of the San Diego Soccer Coaches Assn. or at the door.

Breitbard Gives Memorabilia

Hall of Champions Gets Historic Sports Items

Founded in 1946 by San Diego sportsman Bob Breitbard, the Breitbard Athletic Foundation is dissolving and turning over all its assets to the San Diego Hall of Champions.

Included in the turnover are the hundreds of pieces of sports memorabilia collected by the members of the Breitbard Athletic Foundation Board of Governors over the years and now on display at the Hall of Champions, the value of which is impossible to assess. Also there is a film library, files containing data on local sports for at least the past 28 years and various pieces of furniture and equipment.

Breitbard, president and founder of the Breitbard Athletic Foundation and the founder of the Hall of Champions, said: "I am very pleased to make this move which gives the Hall title to all the pieces of San Diego sports history which we of the Foundation have been able to find and acquire over the years."

Ed Scott, chairman of the Breitbard Athletic Foundation Board of Governors and a member of the Hall of Champions Board of Trustees, said: "The Hall will continue the function of the Breitbard Athletic Foundation in making appropriate awards and giving recognition to the athletes of San Diego on a monthly and annual basis."

Destructive Reporters Injured Major Sports Here Says Couppee

Al Couppee, sportscasting figure in San Diego for the past 13 years, reviewed the sports scene in San Diego for the San Diego Chamber of Commerce's sports breakfast at El Cortez.

"We've been through a couple of cycles," Couppee told the Thursday morning turnout, "and I hope the third one is about to begin.

"The second cycle is that where certain members of the media — and the guy on the street — have been tearing down sports and sports figures instead of trying to help — trying to push and promote legitimate sports activities and working together to make San Diego a fine place to enjoy sports," he said.

"Some journalists today have become antagonists and adversaries of everybody they cover and in everything they report. That's not right.

"They fail to see any of the good in people who are performing.

"One fellow in town has been fired by everybody he ever worked for and all he can do is cut down, carp and gripe. And half of what he says is not true," Couppee said.

He recalled that the first cycle was when nearly everybody — back in 1962-1965 worked together to make San Diego a place to enjoy major sports. He called off a list of names of people who worked then but have since disappeared. "Where did they go?

"When clubs, franchises, arenas and stadiums get in trouble now, these fellows are no where to be found. The only ones you can find now are the detractors. They're in both the print media and the electronic," he said.

Destructive Figures

"We've got them all over the place. They have nothing constructive to offer — everything is destructive."

He reminded that people like Mayor Charles Dail (deceased) had put his political life on the line when he pledged a million dollars of City funds to enlarge Balboa Stadium in order to the L.A. Chargers here. How C. Arnholt Smith had underwritten the Padres as a minor league team and had put up $10 million for a National League franchise. "Smith wasn't a baseball fan. He did see five major league games in the five years he owned them," them," Couppee said. "He just wanted the community to have major league sports."

"Bob Breitbard walked the streets of San Diego trying to get bankers to finance the Sports Arena so that he could bring in hockey and basketball."

Breitbard later sold the basketball team when the City refused to negotiate a 'possessory interest tax' matter that was sapping off the Breitbard income although the City had financially accommodated baseball and football.

Couppee indicated that the third cycle was soon to come. Antagonistic sports media people would eventually change their stripe and community leaders would again emerge to give aid to sports activities gratuitously.

During the three preceding weeks, baseball, football and hockey executives had been on the weekly programs sponsored by the Chamber. M.G.

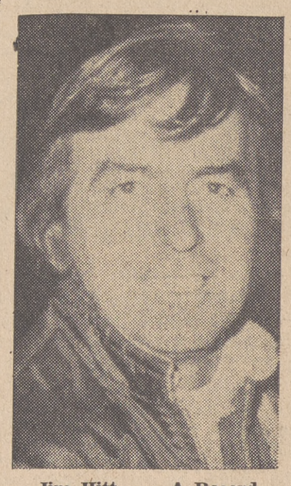
Hitt Smashes Record At Cajon Speedway

It took two re-starts to get the race started Saturday night and Jim Hitt of Lemon Grove was the cause.

Hitt started on the pole and jumped the gun twice, then led the field for 30 laps. Near mid-way, John Borneman of El Cajon lost a right front wheel

Lanny Pemberton of Lemon Grove was in on the chase but Hitt was not to be denied. He posted a track record busting 9:00:32 in his 1972 Mustang Mach 1.

Pat McIntyre of Spring Valley, aiming to be the first to win three championships in a row, missed his second main event by a car's length.



Jim Hitt . . . A Record

Another Lemon Grove driver, Gary Beecroft, attracted attention. He came from 11th in the 15-lap semi-main to win it.

Grove Man Named Mariners PR Exec.

SAN DIEGO—Gabe DeNunzio, a long-time Lemon Grove resident, and sports information director at the University of San Diego, has been named public relations director for the San Diego Mariners hockey team.

"Gabe's strong local background was a key factor in our seeking him for the position," said Skip Feldman, executive vice-president of the new World Hockey Association team.

DeNunzio, who has been at USD since 1972, was a coordinator for the Golden State Warriors' National Basketball Association operation in San Diego, a member of the Caliente Race Track public relations staff and sports information director at S.D.S.U.

He majored in journalism and public relations at San Diego State.

Chess Tourney Called 'Biggest'

The S.D. International Open Chess Tournament starting July 4 will be the biggest chess tournament in the history of San Diego.

200 chessplayers will be battling for $1500 in prizes.

Both figures are San Diego records by large margins.

The tournament will be a 7 round Swiss. (In a Swiss, you play opponents who have won and/or lost the same number of games you have.)

It will be played over the 4th of July weekend at Convair Recreation Building, on Claremont blvd., East of Hwy 395 in San Diego, starting 11 a.m. Thursday.

Those wishing to register at the site should arrive between 8 a.m. and 10:30 a.m. Rounds will start at 11 a.m. and 5 p.m. Thursday, 7 p.m. Friday, 11 a.m. and 5 p.m. Saturday, and 10 a.m. and 4 p.m. Sunday.

Tournament director is David Argall. Time control will be 50 moves in 150 minutes. Players are advised to bring their set, board, scorebook, and chess clock if they have them.

Prizes include: First: $300, 2nd, $200, 3rd, $100, plus many class prizes. $100 each to the best: Master, Expert, A, B, C, D, E, and Unrated.

TAKE FIVE

By John E. Wirges

Just the other day a lad asked what he ought to do to become a sports writer. He claimed to be a baseball fan, and to prove it he recited the batting averages of all the lifetime .300 hitters retired before 1960.

He was also keen on basketball and before you could stop him, listed all the cities that have teams in the National Basketball Association.

Who could remember the Anderson Packers, Indianapolis Jets, Providence Steamrollers, Waterloo Hawks or the Toronto Huskies? The Sheboygan Redskins were out of my class.

Only a man possessed would commit to memory such items as the Chicago Redskins playing 26 games in both 1933 and 1934 in order to meet the guarantee salaries of its players. Or that the British Open was extended from 36 to 72 holes in 1892. Or that Harold "Red" Grange earned $82,000 playing in five football games in 10 days back in 1925.

The lad wasn't a sports fan, he was a walking encyclopedia of sports. He had command of more facts on the muscle flexing set than Peter Graham has gall. It was almost stoopifying. He could even name the other backs with Doc Blanchard and Glen Davis back at Army in 1947.

It was almost eerie, the way he recited names, places and times, opponents, distances and other happenings. He had a photographic memory and a genius for keeping his mental file to good order.

And he wanted to be a sportswriter.

The little squirt could even type at 70 words a minute, which put him 50 up on me . . . and I'm one of the faster ones around. At least I use all 10 pinkies, two for striking the keys and the other bunch for tapping the bar.

I'm glad I was able to put the kid on the right track. Sports writing needs new blood, but he was going about it the wrong way.

"Kid," I said. "Forget this history and record bunk. Nobody reads that stuff anymore. Nobody cares how much faster one sprinter is than another. Just mention, in passing, which one of the streakers finished first, then lay it on heavy how the guy cheats on his wife."

The kid batted both eyes and said, "Huh?"

"That's it, kid. Dig deep and find out what he was doing when he ditched school back in the 8th grade. See if he has a juvenile record, that's always good for a sidebar.

The kid was almost in tears. He was a purist. "But I want to write sports the way it is," he nearly sobbed.

"Then study law," I advised. "Read up on torts and counter-torts. Take extra study in loopholes and how to break contracts. Go into labor laws and how players can strike a team, but still get paid for holidays.

"Maybe you should specialize in how professioinal athletes can file bankruptcy after getting their money into a numbered bank account in a foreign country."

"But that's not sports," the kid cried. He broke down right there and let the tears flow like Niagara.

"You got it all wrong," he sobbed over his shoulder, as he walked away. "Athletes are good and clean and honest and a credit to humanity. They don't lie and cheat like you said. They're not selfish or greedy . . ."

His voice tailed off as he walked away.

Did he really believe professional athletes don't lie and cheat, or that they were not selfish or greedy? And he got away before I even got to the owners.

To this day I don't know if that kid was putting me on or not.

New Chief For Gold Warriors

Richard H. Vertlieb, 43, one of the founders of the Seattle Super Sonics in 1967, has been named General Manager and Chief Executive Officer of the Golden State Warriors, President Franklin Mieuli announced.

Vertilieb will be responsible for the day-to-day operation of the Warriors, said Mieuli, and Bob Feerick, General Manager since 1963-64, will assume the position of Director of Player Personnel.

Vertlieb assumes leadership immediately and will attend the National Basketball Association meetings now in progress in New York.

Vertlieb comes to the Warriors with an impressive backlog of basketball experience, including three seasons with the Super Sonics, for whom he served as General Manager, Executive Vice President and Financial Officer after helping form the franchise seven years ago.

Gulls Host Final Party At Hanalei

The Gulls management said "goodbye" to the media and other friends of Western Hockey League play recently at a luncheon at the Hanalei hotel.

"It is a sad day," Bob Breitbard, Gulls owner said.

Breitbard believed he would have a National Hockey League franchise here until Sports Arena owner Peter Graham signed up the World Hockey League while NHL negotiations were in progress.

That put the Gulls and Breitbard's hope for NHL team here out of business.

General manager Max McNab in a touching speech said "Every franchise is just a piece of paper. It has no guarantees. It only gives you permission to play. With that piece of paper we became recognized across the country as No. 1 candidate for NHL expansion and respected as the top organization in all hockey outside the NHL.

"We have a plan for staff and players," McNab added, "but it takes more than . . . a few days to change the lives of so many people."

McNab is the most respected executive in hockey.

The Gulls were born in San Diego and operated in the Sports Arena eight years.

The farewell luncheon was at the Hanalei hotel. Nearly 100 persons attended—most of whom were sportscasters and sportswriters.

Orr, Esposito, Broderick, to Aid Jr. Hockey

Hockey stars Bobby Orr, Phil Esposito and Tony Esposito will headline a guest list for a benefit dinner with proceeds going to the Greater San Diego Amateur Hockey Assn. this summer.

The announcement was made at the regular weekly meeting of Sportscasters/Sportswriters Monday by Ken Broderick, who was Gulls star goalie for two years.

The dinner program is scheduled Saturday, August 24, at the Town & Country Convention Center. Cocktails will be at 6:30—Dinner 7:30.

This summer 500 aspiring young hockey players are expected to register for the 1974-75 season with the aim to enjoy the fastest team game in the world. Some of the players hopefully will develop the skills, as well as, fulfill their dream of playing professional hockey.

It was this concept that prompted the organization of an evening of entertainment with the proceeds going to amateur hockey.

Tickets (and preferably tables of 8) will be reserved on a first-come basis. Each ticket will be $25.

Reservations can be made by writing or telephoning: Benefit Dinner: S.D.A.H.A., P.O. Box 2836, La Mesa, Ca 92041, 714/232-6795, Ext. 20.

Checks should be made payable to the Benefit Dinner—San Diego Amateur Hockey Association (S.D.A.H.A.).

Broderick also told the group that he, John Miszuk, a 4-year Gull defenseman, and Bud Ingalls, an El Cajon businessman, were planning an ice rink in El Cajon on Johnson ave.

It will be ready for operation by Oct. 1, he said.

T.V. Starts Friday — In Color

Denny Moyer-Vicente Medina Fight Promises Ring Action

It's television time at the Coliseum. Promoter-matchmaker Mickey Davies said his Friday night fights will be telecast live from the Coliseum and aired in full color over KWHY Ch. 22, Los Angeles. It will be in living color.

But a television favorite, handsome Mike Nixon, won't be there. He has been sidelined with a sore elbow. Tendonitis, they call it.

He was scheduled to go against former junior middleweight champion Denny Moyer of Portland. Moyer will be there.

So will the Arizona middleweight champion Vicente Medina. He will substitute for Nixon and that makes for a better fight.

Both Medina and Moyer are brawlers. Medina KO'd David Love in one round earlier this month. Moyer recently finished off Mike Lancaster of Seattle in two rounds. Medina has been the hero of Mexican fans since he dumped Love. He carried dynamite in both hands.

Moyer, a 34-year old Portland bar owner, indicated that his future rests on Friday's bout. "I'm not about to let a 'spoiler' like Medina ruin my comeback drive," he said.

The winner of this bout has been promised by Davies a fight with Emile Griffith, former middle-and-welterweight champion, or with Tony Licata, number one middleweight contender.

Also scheduled in a 10 rounder Friday is popular Ad Zapanta of the Philippines who will mix it with Felix Garcia, the younger brother of Chu Cho Garcia.

Back again in the prelims will be the popular lethal puncher, San Diego high school-fighter-turned-pro, Manuel Lujan.

Last Week

Mike Avans, who claims the Arizona middleweight title and who listed a record unblemished by defeat, learned what it is to be knocked out Friday night.

His adversary was Manuel Elizondo, the middleweight champion of Mexico. Elizondo registered a technical KO at 2:20 of the 7th round of a fight scheduled for 10. Avans, a stocky fighter with a good left and an ineffectual right, was cut and bleeding throughout the last four rounds. Elizondo was a substitute for Marco Gerardo who was unable to meet his commitment due to an injured hand.

In a companion 10-rounder middleweight Johnny Montagne, a "personality" fighter is a crowd-pleaser although Howard's handlers complained bitterly at the split decision.

In the 4-round featherweight opener Miguel Ruiz and Alex Mayoral fought to a draw. Both were cut and bleeding when the fight ended.

In the 5-round wrap-up, lightweight Tommy Nava won a unanimous decision over Rickey Ferris.

Fights start at 8:15 each Friday at the Coliseum. Reservations may be made at 232-1904 or 232-8362. The Coliseum is at 15th and E streets. M.G.

Key Games For Padres 3 Special Events Set

Two straight weeks of pressure baseball will be shortly coming to a close for the San Diego Padres as they finish out their key series with the San Francisco Giants and the Houston Astros.

The Padres will finish a home series with the Giants tonight then lock horns with the Astros for four games, Friday through Sunday.

Game times for the Astro encounters will vary greatly as the Friday night affair will go at the usual time of 7:30 p.m., but the Saturday evening set-to will get underway at 6 p.m. due to the scheduled doubleheader on Sunday which is slated for 1 p.m.

There will be a day of rest for the Padres Monday as they travel to San Francisco to resume their battle against the Giants July 2-4. The final three meetings with the Giants will put the wraps on a 14-game run by the Padres against San Francisco and Houston.

"The pressure is still very much on us," said Padre manager John McNamara. "We're still locked in that battle to get out of the cellar and make some progress upwards in the standings. Any slipups now, by either us or San Francisco or Houston, could be fatal.

"It's imperative that we stay right with these two clubs and, actually, come out ahead when the final 14-game tally is in. Naturally, we want to be on the plus side when we're all finished, but the important thing for us is not to play losing baseball during any part of this stretch."

Several specials are planned for the three games with the Astros. The Friday affair will be Short Order Cooks Night. Some 9,000 free coupons have been mailed out to 1,500 eating establishments in the San Diego area which are good for admission along with the wearing of a chefs hat.

A pre-holiday fireworks program is scheduled for Saturday evening immediately following the ball game. The program will last around 30 minutes and will be staged by the San Diego Fireworks Display Company under the direction of Jimmy Peluso.

Rounding things out on Sunday will be Let's Dine Out Ball Day with the first 10,000 youngsters 14 years of age and under receiving a free Padre souvenir baseball courtesy of Let's Dine Out Corp.

Due to production problems in the Taiwan manufacturing plant, no redemption coupons will be available for fans unable to obtain a ball.

Padres Specials

SHORT ORDER COOKS NIGHT

Short order cooks of San Diego unite! Friday will be your night at San Diego Stadium as the Padres will be holding Short Order Cooks Night with all chefs in the San Diego area being the guests of the ball club.

The Padres will be playing the Houston Astros that night and Padre owner Ray Kroc and club president Buzzie Bavasi have proclaimed that evening as a special night for all short order cooks due to the ridicule they came in for from members of the Astros. Fans may remember Houston players commenting that "You can't treat your players like a bunch of short order cooks."

Approximately 9,000 free coupons have been mailed out to some 1,500 restaurants and eating places in the area and all the cooks have to do to gain admission is to present one of the coupons and be wearing their chefs hat.

PRE-HOLIDAY FIREWORKS

If you were on hand for the Padres season-opener back on April 9 and saw the tremendous fireworks display following the ball game then you know what a great show it was. Well, the Padres have bigger and better plans for their pre-holiday fireworks program scheduled for Saturday, June 29 after the Padres-Houston Astros set-to.

The program will be a 30-minute extravaganza, immediately following the game.

Game time that evening will be 6 p.m. instead of the usual 7:30 p.m., due to the fact that the same two teams will be playing a 1 p.m. doubleheader Sunday afternoon.

LET'S DINE OUT BALL DAY

Padres will close out their current homestand on Sunday with a doubleheader at 1 p.m. against the Houston Astros with a highlight being the Let's Dine Out Ball Day.

Through the courtesy of the Let's Dine Out Corp., the first 10,000 youngsters 14-years-of-age-and-under entering the stadium will be given free Padre souvenir baseballs bearing the Padre and Let's Dine Out logos.

'Sweet Charity' Opens Tonight at Off Broadway

A new production graces the Off Broadway stage starting tonight for a month's run. It is Neil Simon's hit musical, "Sweet Charity" starring Isabelle Farrell, veteran Broadway actress in the title role with Bob Hanley playing opposite her.

It's a musical — and is designed for summer fun-fare. The music is tuneful and the comedy is outlandish. How could anyone, including Neil Simon, write an unfunny play about a taxi-dance chick named "Charity" who is always on the lookout for "Mr. Right." It's like seeking a modest maiden in a go-go joint. Charity's "Mr. Right" always ends up by doing her wrong — but she has endurance.

Show times for "Charity" "Big Spender" and "If My Friends Could See Me Now", are memorable tunes from "Sweet Charity".

Three Named By Hall of Champs

Spectacular performances in track and field by Arnie Robinson, Willie Banks and Elijah Jefferson have brought those three San Diego area athletes recognition as Hall of Champions Breitbard Athletic Stars of the Month for May.

The San Diego Hall of Champions Awards Committee, which has assumed the functions handled for the past 28 years by the Board of Governors of the Breitbard Athletic Foundation, had to consider the qualifications of 12 strong candidates before giving an edge to the three track aces. Each of the others will be cited with certificates of merit.

The San Diego Track Club's Robinson made a leap of 27 feet, 2¾ inches in the long jump at the Modesto Relays for the fifth best effort in world history and wrapped up his third straight major title of the 1974 season.

Banks, an Oceanside High senior already named Star of the Year by the San Diego C.I.F. Section, broke his own state C.I.F. triple jump record by clearing 50 feet, 7 inches, and he also tied the all-time county mark of 14.1 in the 120-yard high hurdles.

Although only a junior at Crawford High, Jefferson won his second consecutive state C.I.F. 100-yard dash crown with a blazing :09.4 clocking at Bakersfield.

A certificate will be presented to Rich Friedman, Monte Vista High Senior, who captured both the San Diego Section and Southern California C.I.F. individual golf championships.

L.G. Youth Scheduled In Special Olympics

One hundred and thirty San Diego County Special Olympic athletes will be competing in the State Special Olympic Meet at UCLA Friday, Saturday and Sunday. These athletes were winners in District and County Meets locally. This is the sixth year of Special Olympics in California and San Diego as well.

The Track and Field Meet will be held at the UCLA Track with Gymnastics and Basketball competition at Pauley Pavillion. The Swimming Meet will be held at the Santa Monica Municipal Pool. Eighty-two of the San Diego participants are in Track and Field events, one in Gymnastics and forty-seven in Swimming.

John Strebe of Lemon Grove will be competing in Swimming.

The Opening Exercises will take place at 6:30 Friday evening. This includes the Parade of Athletes and Lighting of the Olympic Torch.

The program of Special Olympics is sponsored locally by the San Diego County Association for the Retarded and is operated entirely by volunteers. It provides year-round athletic training and competitive events. Some of the organizations who have made this possible are: YOUTH for San Diego Retarded; American Red Cross; San Diego City Recreation Department; Chula Vista Jaycees; North S.D. County Assn. for the Retarded; S.D. County Sheriffs Deputies Assn., S.D. City-County Coaches Assn. and others.

Sand n' Surf for Jr. High Students

The Jr. High summer program, sponsored by Skyline Church at 1345 Skyline in Lemon Grove, provides 7th and 8th graders with weekend bus trips to the beach. The bus leaves the front of the church at 12:30 each Saturday and returns at 5:30.

The charge is 50 cents, however if a Jr. High student clips out this article and gives it to the bus driver, it will be good for a free pass.

The program will continue through the summer. For further information call Steve Jurchenko at 461-5759.

Jim Hitt

Special event this Saturday night will be the fourth Powder Puff race of the year with three different winners in the competitive field.

Joy Swentkofske of La Mesa is the top point leader with 675 points, Barbara Baxter with 460 and Barbara Hinkle the third winner is in 7th place with 385, both Barbara's being from El Cajon.

All will be looking for their second win in the 10 lap event.

Armed Forces week will be recognized with appreciation at Cajon Speedway with a special admission of $1.50 for all members of the Armed Forces on the West Side of the Speedway.

The ten event program will begin with qualifying at 6:30, race time at 8 p.m. on the 3/8ths mile, hi-banked oval.

NEW VEEP — Gary Sweet, who has been manager of Lincoln Finance Co. of Lemon Grove for the past four years, has been named vice-president of the firm, it was announced this week.
He will still maintain his title of manager.
Prior to joining Lincoln, Sweet spent three years as an executive with Pacific Finance in Lemon Grove.
Since joining his present firm Sweet has been active in the Lemon Grove Lions club; the Old Time Days Association and the L.G. Chamber of Commerce.
He and his wife live in Casa de Oro with their two children.
Regarding his promotion: "We have added recreation vehicle financing to our growing list of business clients and that has contributed to our growth. But, we are primarily in the business of giving financial aid to individual residents. As the oldest financing firm in the Lemon Grove- Spring Valley area, it is rewading to view the progress we have made," he said.

L.G. Honor Student Graduates UC Davis

Condition Book Readied For Del Mar Race Track

Del Mar's first condition book, which includes seven added-money events and $841,500 in purses, is now available to horsemen pointing for the upcoming season of racing at the seaside track.

Covering the first dozen racing days, July 24 through Aug. 5, the condition book leads off with an opening day card that features the $20,000-added Palomar Handicap for fillies and mares, a pair of $9,000 allowance contests and the first race in the Seaside Distance Series on the turf course.

Contested at about seven-and-one-half furlongs on the grass, the Palomar is the first of 25 stakes races scheduled for the summer meet. A total of $705,000 wil be offered by the Del Mar Thoroughbred Club in the rich line-up of events.

The first week of racing also will see top two-year-old fillies in action in the $15,000-added California Thoroughbred Breeder's Association Stakes on Friday, July 26. The six-furlong dash is designed for young lasses bred in California and is a significant prep for the Del Mar Debutante on Labor Day.

The $20,000-added Oceanside Handicap for three-year-olds highlights Del Mar's opening Saturday card, July 27, and the centerpiece of the first of seven Sunday programs during the meet will be the $25,000-added San Diego Handicap.

Completing the stakes events in the first condition book are the $15,000-added Graduation Stakes (July 31), the $20,000-added San Clemente Stakes (Aug. 3) and the $20,000-added Cabrillo Handicap (Aug. 4).

The condition books are available at either the Hollywood Park Racing Office or the Del Mar Thoroughbred Club offices in Del Mar.

New Manager For Pals Cafe

Ed Barret, a member of the Perry family, has assumed management of Pal's Lemon Grove Cafe. The appointment was made June 13.

Pal's is at 3521 Imperial ave. and has been operated by the Perry Electric Corp. three years.

Barrett has been in the restaurant equipment business for more than 12 years.

So far, under Barrett's management, the kitchen has been renovated. A full menu is served daily but prime ribs of beef has been added as a house specialty on Thursdays and Sundays.

Another innovation is "wine-burgers." That is a king-sized ground beef hamburger flavored with port wine.

Barrett said a new menu is in the making.

"It will feature the same high quality food. We intend to serve the best food possible at fair prices," he said.

S.V. Woman Attends AAUW Conference

The biennial conference for presidents of the 50 state divisions of the American Association of University Women was held at the AAUW Educational Center, Washington, D. C., June 23-26.

Among the presidents of the four state divisions comprising the AAUW South Pacific Region who attended the conference was Marilyn Poluzzi (Mrs. Louis), Spring Valley.

Workshops, leadership training and Association business dominated the three-day agenda. Group discussions considered the report of the AAUW Commission on the Future, the interrelationship between the Associations and colleges and universities which are corporate members, and program and membership planning.

The AAUW presidents also attended briefings by government officials on national issues at the Department of Health, Education and Welfare, the Department of State, and Federal Energy Administration.

Mt. Miguel Grad Marketing V.P.

Gary Michael Sandor, a graduate of Mount Miguel High School, has been named vice-president of David Pearson Associates, a public relations firm in Miami, Florida. The announcement was made by David Pearson, president of that organization.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Zoly Sandor, 1200 Grand ave. in Spring Valley, Gary will be responsible for counseling clients in marketing programs and development strategies.

After graduation from Mt. Miguel High school, where he played varsity football from 1961 to 1963, Gary enrolled at USC where he earned a Bachelor's degree in Architecture. In 1970 he was awarded a Master's degree in Urban Studies from the Occidental College of Los Angeles.

SDG&E Appeals 'Low' Rates—PUC Hearing

A $7.1 million increase in the wholesale cost of natural gas is expected to be imposed on San Diego Gas & Electrical Company in July, and the company must have rate relief to offset the increase, John H. Woy, vice president — rates and valuations, said.

Testifying at a Public Utilities Commission hearing in San Diego, Woy said authorization of the offset increase would merely enable the company to maintain the same earning position it would be in if the wholesale cost of gas were unchanged.

If the offset increase is not granted, Woy said, the company may be faced with another financial emergency.

Of the $7.1 million sought by SDG&E, $5.3 million would come from service to the utility's retail gas customers, adding 62 cents per month to the bill of an average customer using 71 therms of natural gas. The remainder of the requested increase would come from the company's electric and steam departments and would add 9 cents per month to the bills of residential electric customers.

SDG&E has asked that the offset rate belief be made effective simultaneously with the granting of a similar proposed increase in Southern California Gas Company's wholesale rate schedule for SDG&E.

The proposed offset rates would be subject to reduction and refund to correspond to any reduction in gas charges that the PUC might order for Southern California Gas Company.

The expected increase in the whoesale cost of natural gas stems from rate hikes sought by Transwestern Pipeline Company and El Paso Natural Gas Company and passed on to Southern California Gas Company.

Burgener Sees Aid For Independent Service Stations

WASHINGTON: Congressman Clair W. Burgener (R-Rancho Santa Fe) has co-authored legislation to protect independent service station operators from having their stations taken away from them by major oil companies without just cause.

The bill Burgener co-sponsored could require the major oil companies to show that their franchise dealers did not comply substantially with an essential and reasonable requirement of a lease agreement in order to cancel or fail to renew such a lease.

"Independent service station operators are small businessmen who have found themselves in a squeeze in recent months as the cost of their products have increased and the profit margins have decreased in many cases," Burgener said, adding, "Now many of them find that the businesses they have worked for years to build are threatened as major oil companies move to consolidate their sales operations. The small businessman needs the protection of this measure at this crucial time."

Burgener said his bill is designed to protect the interest of the consumer by assuring the element of competition which would produce better service and the interest of the small businessman. He said he hopes the Congress will act on this bill as soon as possible.

Tax Law Information Available To Grocers from Equalization Board

State Board of Equalization Member John W. Lynch released a publication, "Tax Tips for Grocery Stores," intended as a guide to owners, managers, and operators of grocery stores. It offers basic information on the application of the California Sales and Use Tax Laws to such establishments.

The pamphlet explains that all tangible personal property sold by such stores is subject to sales tax unless the item is specifically exempt by law, as for example, most food products for human consumption. Some items sold by grocery stores to which sales tax generally applies are cosmetics, tobacco products, pet food and supplies, soaps or detergents, dietary supplements, and carbonated soft drinks and mixes.

The new publication outlines what business records must be kept to meet the tax law requirements and gives instructions for preparing tax returns.

Of special interest are explanations of the taxability of premium coupons, trading stamps, federal food stamps, and bottle deposits.

The pamphlet also partially itemizes products sold by grocers into exempt or taxable classifications.

"Tax Tips for Grocery Stores" is available from the Board's field offices located throughout the State, or from Board headquarters at 1020 N. st., Sacramento, 95814.

California 'Nobody Knows' Subject of UCSD Research

This summer a week-long learning adventure cruise to Catalina and the Channel Islands has been scheduled by UCSD Extension.

Sailing out of Newport Harbor August 15 aboard the oceanographic research vessel Fury II, the group will visit Santa Barbara Island, San Miguel, Santa Rosa, Santa Cruz, Anacapa, and Santa Catalina before returning August 21.

The isolated environment of the Channel Islands led to the evolution of forms of plant and animal life which occur nowhere else on earth. Participants in the Extension trip will explore the unique and relatively untouched "ecological communities" which have resulted there.

Anyone who is in good health and prepared for somewhat rugged camping conditions is welcome to enroll, according to expedition leader Donald A. MacLean, who was science curriculum coordinator for the San Diego County schools until 1970. Currently, he is assistant superintendent of the Orange County Department of Education and Director of their Floating Marine Laboratory.

The Channel Islands, sometimes referred to as 'the California nobody knows,' are continental islands(as opposed to volcanic islands), which means that at one time they were part of a "mainland." How mammals got to them is a major question, according to instructor Howe. Foxes — different foxes have evolved on each island — may have been transported there by ancient men, he says.

Indians were inhabiting the islands when the Spaniards came to what is now California.

Some nights will be spent aboard the Fury II, others ashore on the islands. The last night out, says Howe, the group will divide into teams to present skits on various aspects of the trip.

An informational meeting open to any interested person, at no charge, will be held Thursday evening July 18 at 7 o'clock in Room 1110 of the Psychology and Linguistics Building on UCSD's Muir Campus.

A descriptive brochure is available. Please call 453-2000, extension 2061; or write: Ecology of the California Channel Islands, UCSD Extension, P.O. Box 109, La Jolla, CA 92037.

Local Freeway Revision Planned

Construction and revision of two Route 94 interchanges is scheduled near Lemon Grove according to bids being called by the California Department of Transportation (CALTRANS).

The existing interchange between Routes 94 and 125 will be revised to provide full freeway-to-freeway connections between the two routes. Upon completion of the interchange, Route 94 will be a full four-lane freeway from the interchange to Avocado boulevard, 2.3 miles easterly.

The interchange to be constructed is at the junction of Route 94 and Lemon Grove avenue (formerly Costa Bella dr.).

Route 94 westerly from the proposed interchange is eight-lane freeway.

A total of $10,399,080 has been allocated for the project.

Bids will be opened August 15 in Los Angeles, and completion of the project is scheduled for mid-1976.

U-Turn Okay As of July 1

A new law taking effect July 1, 1974, will permit California motorists to make a U-turn at a green light or a green arrow signal unless the intersection is posted with a sign specifically prohibiting U-turns. Previous law banned U-turns unless a sign was visible saying "U-turn OK."

The new law brings California into conformity with most other states and should clear up much of the confusion that exists, especially with out-of-state drivers.

A new law in Idaho lowered the age for jury duty from 21 to 18.

ROSTER CHANGES HANDS — Spring Valley Lions Club welcomes President-elect Mike Beggs (right) who accept the Club membership roster from out-going President, John Baker. Beggs has stated that the Lion's Club goals this year are to continue its support of sight handicapped persons in addition to providing various types of volunteer services when the need arises — and further, to encourage other area businessmen to support their community through Lionism — all toward making Spring Valley a better place to live and work.
The Lions Club is a strictly volunteer association and no salaries or expenses are drawn from the Club's funds. The Lions meet twice monthly at the Ox Bow Inn, Casa de Oro.

Swanson 'Project Concern' International Volunteer

Today, the anniversary of the opening of the Project Concern Hospital Materno-Infantil in Tijuana, will mark a year of activity as an international volunteer for Mrs. Clayton Swanson (Melvaline) of 1518 Koe, Lemon Grove. She is one of a dozen women who have been crossing the border weekly to take part in an international aid program at the hospital.

Considered the most modern maternity and pediatric medical facility in Northern Mexico, the Project Concern Hospital serves the needy of Tijuana's canyon slums, explains Mrs. Swanson. More than 2,000 children and mothers are treated each month in the outpatient clinic, maternity and pediatric wards of the hospital, one of 22 Project Concern medical aid facilities around the world supported by contributions and the annual Walk for Mankind, she said.

As a volunteer, Mrs. Swanson helps bathe and feed the children. She plays with them and carries on arts and crafts activities to break the tedium for patients facing long periods in the hospital. Without knowledge of Spanish, she says, "a smile and a squeeze" offer international communication.

Chiropractic Field-day'

Doctors of Chiropractic, their families and friends have been invited to participate in Chiropratic Day at the Ball Park Saturday. The San Diego Padres will be playing against the Houston Astros and doctors, coming from the entire county of San Diego, will be viewing from the Bull Pen Club.

The festivities will begin at 5:30 p.m. with a catered dinner, refreshments and will be highlighted by the San Diego Stadium's Annual Holiday Firework's Show.

The San Diego County Chiropractic Society and Women's Auxiliary are sponsoring this event.

L.G. Rotary at New Meeting Place

The Lemon Grove Rotary club moves its meeting place next week, according to its newly seated president Dale Bailey.

Starting July 1, the club will meet at the Lemon Grove VFW Hall, 2885 Imperial ave., which is about four blocks south of Broadway.

The club meets every Monday at noon.

Members of the Lemon Grove club have been invited to participate in the first annual Rotary Foundation Golf Tournament to be held on the island of Maui, Hawaii Sept. 10-11.

Red Cross Holds Leadership Meet

"How to Fight City Hall and Stay Within the System" is one of the discussions planned for the Red Cross Youth Leadership Center through June 28 at the University of California, San Diego.

"Leadership Center provides an atmosphere in which young people can develop leadership skills and learn to use these skills for the benefit of the community," Jack Blake, Chairman of Red Cross Youth Service Programs, said.

The Center is sponsored by the San Diego County Chapter and the Pasadena Chapter of the American National Red Cross.

The 200 delegates from California and Arizona are chosen for their interest in community service, scholarship, citizenship and potential for leadership. They live on campus during Leadership Center Week and receive training in group dynamics and leadership skills.

A volunteer staff of 35 leaders, 18 of whom are young people who have previously attended a center, work with the delegates.

Other panel discussions will be held on alcoholism in youth, aging, and inter-cultural relations.
